are delighted to announce a

CHARITY NETWORKING LUNCH

Friday 22 September 2017, 1-5 pm

In support of the David Bucknall Scholarship Fund, our speakers and guests will provide an inspiring presentation on the current status of the construction Industry and the skills, training and education required for the new generation.

Our speakers and guests include:

Lord Digby Jones

Born in Birmingham and educated through a Scholarship at Bromsgrove School, Digby Jones joined the Royal Navy before graduating from University College London and joining the law firm, Edge & Ellison, rising from Articled Clerk to Senior Partner. In 1998 he joined KPMG as Vice-Chairman of corporate finance, before taking up the role at the CBI. In 2006 he was knighted for his services to Business and became Sir Digby Jones in the Queen's New Year's Honours List. In 2007 he became a Life Peer taking the title Digby, Lord Jones of Birmingham Kb.

David Duckham MBE

Born in Coventry and educated at Coundon Infant & Junior School and King Henry VIII Grammar School, Duckham played rugby union for England, making his international debut against Ireland in 1969 and quickly establishing himself as one of England's best centres. He played 36 games for England from 1969 to 1976 and scored 10 tries. David was awarded the MBE for his services to Rugby.

Our main sponsors Rider Levett Bucknall and Birmingham City University will provide an update on the fund and the successful scholars involved.

This event will be a perfect opportunity to network with peers and enjoy a 3 course lunch whilst supporting an outstanding initiative, in The Reddings Suite, at Birmingham Moseley Rugby Club offering a stunning view of their main pitch. What better way to spend a Friday afternoon.
